Summer Menus Specials: Eating Contests, Seasonal Menus and Lots of Lobster

1 BY PINEAPPLE • JULY 1, 2014

This summer is all about enticing seasonal culinary options. Especially at long-time Delray Beach establishments like Vic & Angelo's and The Office, where new summer specials highlight some outrageous savings, and tempting dishes. There's everything from lobster and BBQ, to an eating contest and $10 specialty cocktails. What are you waiting for? Get eating.

VIC & ANGELO'S

Vic & Angelo's, known for serving authentic Italian cuisine, is offering a summer menu extravaganza from all this month through the end of August, where executive chef Erick Miranda has created several special dishes to ensure summer remains a savory time for all his patrons.

Monday spotlights "Wine Down Vino & Cannoli," where diners can enjoy half-off all bottles of wine and champagne, along with half-off cannolis, both day and night.

On Tuesday, diners can buy one coal oven pizza, or one hand-made artisan pasta, and get the second one for free.

And during Prime Rib Wednesday, diners can order a prime rib steak, served with a side salad and loaded mashed potato, along with either tiramisu or a cannoli, for $24.95 per person.

On Thursday, seafood lovers will rejoice with "Lobster Notte," a one-pound Maine lobster served with corn-on-the-cob, red potatoes, drawn butter, and either tiramisu or a cannoli, for $24.95 per person.

Vic & Angelo's is located at 290 East Atlantic Avenue in Delray Beach, Florida. Call 561-278-9570, or visit www.vicandangelos.com.
