TWO ENTICING THREE-COURSE PRIX FIXE SUMMER TASTING MENUS
DEBUT AT VIC & ANGELO'S
IN PALM BEACH GARDENS AND DELRAY BEACH FLORIDA

At Vic & Angelo's, in both Palm Beach Gardens and Delray Beach, Florida, it is all about enticing culinary options this summer. These "sister" restaurants — owned by talented restaurateur and entrepreneur John Rosatti — are known for serving delicious, rustic Italian cuisine. The Summer Tasting Menus allow diners to customize their choices.

From June 1 through September 30, 2013 — Sunday through Thursday, for lunch and dinner — both eateries are offering diners two, three-course Summer Tasting Menus, for $25 and $35, per person, excluding tax and gratuity. These terrific menus allow diners to choose one appetizer, one entree, and one dessert, from either menu, which include salads, pizza, pasta, and seafood, chicken, and veal dishes. Diners, who opt for either prix fixe menu, may also add a bottle of Coastal Vines Pinot Grigio, Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, or Pinot Noir, for $15, per bottle.

Vic&Angelo's in Delray Beach boasts a unique one of a kind look and decor. Delicious food is always on.

For the $25, three-course prix fixe menu, diners can choose one appetizer (Angelo's Salad, V&A Caesar, or Fried Calamari); one entree (Pizza Originale, Cappellini al Telefono, with fresh mozzarella and San Marzano tomatoes, Fusilli with crumbled sausage and broccoli rabe; Chicken Milanese; or Grilled Shrimp or Tuna Cobb Salad); and one dessert (gelato or sorbet).

For the $35, three-course prix fixe menu, diners can choose one appetizer (PEI Mussels al Forno, Grilled Calamari, or Spinach Salad); one entree (Shrimp Penne alla Vodka, Chicken Piccata with artichoke hearts, Chicken Marsala with wild mushrooms and sweet pea risotto, Veal Milanese, Wild Salmon with mixed veggies, or Four-Cheese Pear Tortelloni with truffle cream sauce); and one dessert (house-made tiramisu or cannoli).

The restaurants will also be offering their traditional a la carte menus, for lunch and dinner, daily, along with their brunch menu on Saturday and Sunday. Whichever menu diners choose, this season, they can feast on refreshing salads, soul-satisfying house-made pastas, crispy thin-crust pizzas, fresh fish and seafood, and enticing veal and chicken dishes. V&A also features a full bar — with indoor and outdoor seating — with over 100 wines, from all over the globe, as well as fifteen vintages by the glass, and nifty signature cocktails.
