

boca

By Bill Citara

Small Bites: Summer Menu Specials

Jun 10th 2013

More summertime menus from a quartet of local restaurants:

They're rolling out a pair of three-course seasonal menus at Vic & Angelo's in Delray Beach (290 E. Atlantic Ave., 561/278-9570) and Palm Beach Gardens (4520 PGA Blvd., 561/630-9899). At lunch and dinner, Sunday through Thursday, through September, $25 will get you a choice of starters like Caesar salad or fried calamari, entrees like fusilli with sausage and broccoli rabe or chicken Milanese, and gelato or sorbet for dessert. Add 10 bucks more and your choice can be mussels al forno or spinach salad, chicken piccata with artichoke hearts or wild salmon with veggies, and tiramisu or cannoli. Add another $15 and they'll throw in a bottle of Pinot Grigio, Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon or Pinot Noir.

It's much the same deal at Delray's beer-centric hangout, The Office (201 E. Atlantic Ave., 561/276-3600). Here, though, you get two courses for $25 and three courses for $35, both available at lunch and dinner, Sunday through Thursday, through the end of September. Among those courses (whichever prix fixe meal you choose) are deviled eggs, tater tots or chicken shu mai dumplings for starters; Office burger, baby back ribs and ale-battered fish for entrees; and mini ice cream sandwiches, maple-bacon glazed donuts and chocolate bread pudding for dessert.